ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

Comptroller of Public Accounts

OF THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA,

FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING SEPT. 30, 1867

STATEMENT

Showing the gross tax for the year 1866, derived from the several subjects of taxation in the counties of the State, the returns of which are on file in this Department, including the counties of Iredell and Robeson, the taxes of which were settled prior to October 1st, 1866. The Sheriffs of the counties of Halifax and Orange failed to make settlement within the fiscal year, ending September 30th, 1867.

THE superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either family use or manufacturing purposes, are so well established, and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

The machine in question is simple, compact, durable and beautiful. It is quiet, light-running and capable of performing a range and variety of work never before attempted upon a single machine,—using either silk, twist, linen or cotton thread, and sewing with equal facility the vast FINEST and COARSEST materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner.

PHŒNIX MUTUAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

EDSON FESSENDEN, President. JAMES F. BURNS, Secretary.

IN PRESENTING THE CLAIMS OF THE PHŒNIX MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY, to the people of North Carolina, the Agent invites their attention to the following statements:

1. It is a Mutual Company, the profits being divided among the insured.
2. Its insured are allowed to travel and reside in any part of the United States and Europe, at all seasons of the year.
3. Its dividends have averaged 50 per cent yearly, and are payable on the amount of premium paid by the insured.
4. Its policies are all NON-FORFEITING.
5. Its losses have been met by the annual interest received alone,—and a surplus of interest left over to swell the general fund belonging to the insured.
6. It has paid over $300,000 of losses, and NEVER CONTESTED A CLAIM.
7. Its rates of assurance are as cheap as any Company doing a SAFE business.
8. IT WILL NOT INSURE AN UNSOUND LIFE.
9. One half the premium will be received in the note of the insured which note, in case of death, is NEVER deducted from the face of the policy.
10. IT HAS NO CONNECTION WITH FIRE INSURANCE.

Relative character of the Companies operating in North Carolina, as to their Assets and Liabilities, taken from the New York Insurance Report for the year 1867, which is the last report—showing how much of Assets each Company has to meet each dollar of Liability:

PHŒNIX MUTUAL	$1 74
ÆTNA	1 31
BROOKLYN	1 12
CONNECTICUT MUTUAL	1 63
EQUITABLE	1 24
MANHATTAN	1 42

The PHŒNIX MUTUAL offers peculiar inducements to citizens of the Southern States—its regulations with regard to residence and travel being almost unrestricted.

These statements are made from impartial reports in the hands of the Agents of the Company.

Reconstruction.—The Radicals are awaiting a telegram from Gen. Meade, before pushing the bill for the admission of Alabama. Meade promised to telegraph his decision to-day, and dispatches are expected to night. There seems to be no fear that the Constitution will be defeated in either of the other States. Governor Holden writes Senator Wilson that North Carolina will give 30,000 majority for the new Constitution. Nevertheless, should it become necessary, the States will be admitted with their new Constitutions, regardless of the popular vote.—Washington Letter of Baltimore Gazette.

The above extract discloses fully the animus and purpose of the Radical party.—That party is pledged to "reconstruct" the Southern States. After a two years' trial, it would be certain death to the party to fail now. Hence, the public need have no doubt as to their programme on reconstruction. Every Southern State will doubtless be "reconstructed" by the Congress, in time to vote in the next Presidential election, whether the Southern white people will or not. Congress has never intended that the white people of the South shall have a voice in the matter of reconstruction, unless that voice shall be in accordance with its wishes. Whether, therefore, the white people of the South defeat the Radical Constitutions, by staying away from the polls, or by a direct vote upon them, it matters not,—by hook or by crook, Congress will pronounce the Constitutions adopted by the Radical Conventions valid and in force, in order to secure the vote of the Southern States in the Presidential election.

What, then, is the proper course of the Conservatives of North Carolina? If the Reconstruction Acts are not amended—if they are to remain as they were when Alabama voted, requiring a majority of the registered voters in order to the ratification of the new Constitutions,—it is perfectly plain that every white man in the State should stay away from the polls, and thus defeat the Constitution. But Congress will change the Reconstruction Acts. In a few days, Congress will no doubt adopt Mr. Bingham's bill, introduced in the House, on Monday, which declares the new Constitution of Alabama valid, and pledges her admission, as soon as her newly elected Legislature shall adopt the Howard amendment. This will be done, of course, by the scalawags.

But, besides this, a bill will be introduced by the Judiciary Committee in the House, declaring that, hereafter, a majority of votes cast for the Constitution, in the elections under the Reconstruction Acts, shall decide the election. This bill will, no doubt, be rushed through at once. If we are correct in this supposition, then it is plain, that every Conservative man in the State should go to the polls and defeat the Constitution. Under no circumstances, should the people of North Carolina allow the new Constitution, which will be drafted by the present so-called Convention, to become the organic law of the State, either by their refusal to vote or by the approval of their votes.

But if Congress is determined to defeat the wishes of the white people of the South, nolens volens, why, it will be said, should the people exert themselves, to reject the Constitutions? The answer is plain. The present generation is not simply acting for itself. Our children and our children's children are deeply interested in the present issue. If, by any act of ours, we now acquiesce in the proposed organic changes in our Constitution, they may be riveted upon us and our children forever.

Again, the great Democratic and Conservative masses at the North are opposed, on principle, to these changes, and they contend that such changes should only be made by the free choice and will of the governing people of the State, i. e. the white people. If, by any means, the white people of the State should act in such a manner as to convince the Democratic and Conservative masses of the North, that they are indifferent to these changes, or that they acquiesce in their being forced upon them, or if our votes should indicate an approval of them, then, in that case, they can make no strong effort to relieve us.

Congress claims the power to reconstruct the States as it pleases, yet it is evident that that body is anxious to have its measures sanctioned by a majority of the people of the States. Hence it allows the elective franchise, not only to the negroes, but to a number of the whites. If the whites, or a sufficient number of them, added to the negro vote, shall fix these measures upon us, the Congress will claim that it has been done by a majority of the "loyal" people, themselves, and will, therefore, impose a barrier to their removal in time to come.

The matter does not admit of a doubt, that the true policy of the Conservative people of this State, is to rally, every man, to the polls, to vote against the new Constitution. If this be done, as we believe it can be, unless the white people of North Carolina are ready to submit to political and social equality with the negro race and consequent negro supremacy, then we shall plainly show our repugnance to the proposed changes, and this will greatly add to the moral force of our friends at the North, in destroying the Radical policy.

It will be observed, that the above letter writer says that "Governor Holden" has written to Senator Wilson, assuring him that the new Constitution will be adopted by a majority of 30,000! We accept this issue with "Governor Holden," and, should he become the Radical candidate for Governor, as we now certainly expect, he and the Constitution will both be defeated! Let the Conservatives organise for this purpose, AND DO IT QUICKLY.

THE MILITIA PRIOR TO 1835.

It will be remembered that Mr. Ashley, the delegate from Passamaquoddy, in the mongrel Convention, when the Militia Article of the so-called Constitution was under consideration, in advocating the indiscriminate enrolment, in the same companies, of negroes and whites, charged that Gov. Graham, prior to 1835, had drilled in the Militia with free negroes, and had thereby placed himself upon terms of equality with them. Mr. Durham promptly met the allegation in terms of caustic denial,—to which the delegate from Cape Cod only replied, by a reiteration of the assertion. Did he know better? If so, Mr. Durham was fully justified in denouncing the slander in just such terms as he employed. If he was ignorant whereof he spoke, it shows to what a pitch we have come, when mere adventurers, unacquainted with the simplest facts of our past history, are put forward, by a horde of illiterate negroes, to frame a Constitution of free government for North Carolina. We propose to enlighten the delegate from Nantucket, so that he may have no excuse, hereafter, on the plea of ignorance, for the assertion that white men in this State have ever been degraded by being forced to serve in the same militia companies with negroes, or for any pretended precedent, in our history, for compelling them to that humiliation now.

To go as far back as 1812, we find the following law upon our Statute books:

1812, CHAPTER 828—AN ACT TO AMEND THE MILITIA LAWS OF THIS STATE.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, &c., That it shall not be lawful for the Captain or commanding officer of any company of militia to enrol any free negro or mulatto in his company: Provided, always, that it shall and may be lawful, at all times, to enrol a sufficient number of such in any militia company as musicians.

In 1814, during the war with Great Britain, when the State was threatened with invasion, it was deemed advisable to enrol the few free negroes in the State, and a law was passed for that purpose, but it was specially enacted that the enrolment should be separate from that of the whites. Even had this not been so, Governor Graham could not have drilled with free negroes, for he was then barely ten years of age.

In 1823, when the exigency for the enrolment of free negroes, at all, had passed, the following statute was enacted by the Legislature, and it remained on the books until the adoption of the Constitution in 1835, since which time free negroes have not been permitted to be enrolled, even as musicians:

1823, CHAPTER XLI—AN ACT TO AMEND AND EXPLAIN THE SIXTH SECTION OF AN ACT PASSED IN 1814, ENTITLED "AN ACT FOR THE MORE PERFECT ORGANIZATION OF THE MILITIA OF THIS STATE."

Be it enacted, &c., That from and after the passing of this act it shall not be lawful for any Captain or other militia officer in this State to enrol any free person of color except for musicians; any other law or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

THE "SO-CALLED" STILL CREEPING.

The general tenor and plan of the large Radical majority in the "Convention" are so definitely fixed and arranged, as to the character of the new Constitution to be formed, that we regard it as simply talking against time to discuss it by piece-meal.—Nor is there ability enough in the Convention to enlighten any one upon what should be the organic law of the State. Yet, day after day, and now, night after night, this body must go through the motions of a discussion.

Monday night was spent on the Bill of Rights, and on yesterday the final vote was taken,—all present recording their votes in its favor, except twenty, who could not swallow it. The twenty, we judge, will sleep better, for not taxing their digestive organs by an attempt to take it down.

The article on Suffrage came up, on yesterday, when Mr. C. C. Pool, of Pasquotank, delivered himself of a speech, to which he had long been anxious to give verge and vent.—He was, indeed, for universal suffrage. He dwelt in no "pent-up Utica." Every one, born under the "free government," was entitled to it, as a matter of right, and he would not hesitate to give the right to the women, if they wanted it. Mr. Pool, then, is not for manhood suffrage, merely. Why, then, not give it to all the boys and girls, many of whom would vote with ten times the intelligence of nineteen-twentieths of the negroes, twenty-one years of age?

Next followed French, from some of the Wards of Washington City, who claims to represent Chowan, but whose people do not recognize him as a citizen. He had a chance to let off his black bile, of which he is said to be inforeited. He was of course for the niggers,—the only beings whom he has ever found fools enough to make him a representative, so-called. He was for bold suffrage, and, therefore, went for black suffrage, while being too doubtful a color for French. After French had expended a small portion of his bile, the "body concluded to adjourn.

A SLANDER.—Mr. C. C. Pool, of Pasquotank, remarked, in the course of his speech, on yesterday, that, before the passage of the Reconstruction Acts, the negro in this State could not get justice from the Courts. In this statement he slanders the Judiciary of North Carolina. Since the passage of these acts, and for a time before, neither the white nor black scalawags have had justice.—When the whipping post was abolished, justice fled the country. Some people, henceforth, will never get justice. It what we have heard be true, we could prove this by Dr. Vogell, of the Freedmen's Bureau. We are told that a saddle-colored scalawag wanted a pair of shoes and a blanket from the Bureau, some time since, but, for good reasons, no doubt, he was refused. Not long afterwards, he stole quite a number of shoes and blankets from the establishment. But Dr. Vogell soon brought him to grief, by getting back the plunder and turning him over to the law. It is said that the old Doctor either audibly or mentally soliloquized thus: "O! that the days of whipping posts would return, for then the scoundrels would get their dues."

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

NIGHT SESSION.

MONDAY, Feb. 17, 1868.

The Convention was called to order, according to adjournment, at 7½ o'clock.

By Hayes, of Halifax, (negro:) A resolution that the servants employed by this Convention be paid $2 per day. On motion the rules were suspended.

Mr. Hodnett wished to know who the servants were, and their number. He said that the Doorkeepers were there to do the necessary work. He was opposed to such unnecessary extravagance.

The resolution was then referred to the Committee on Contingent Expenses.

Mr. Forkner called up his resolution, in regard to raising a Committee to report a day when, in their opinion, this Convention should adjourn sine die.

The rules were suspended and the resolution adopted.

On motion of Mr. Abbott, the Bill of Rights was taken up and considered on its third reading.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Bill when,

Mr. Heaton said that the whole thing was out of order. The Committee on Engrossment should have reported the bill as being correctly engrossed. Several errors were in it, that should be corrected. This was too important a matter to be hurried over with in this way, and, besides, an example of system and regularity should be set; and, therefore, it should now go to the Committee on Engrossment for correction, and be taken up the first thing in the morning. Mr. Heaton moved to postpone, and make it the special order for to-morrow, at 10½ o'clock.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, said the Suffrage question was the special order for to-morrow; he thought the errors should be corrected now and the bill be proceeded with.

Mr. Heaton withdrew his motion to postpone, in order to allow Mr. Rodman to amend section 17, by adding to it the following: "And this remedy shall not be suspended, except in time of war, insurrection or invasion;" and to strike out the 20th section.

Mr. Rodman gave his reasons for offering his amendment. He thought there were times when the safety of the government and people required that this writ of habeas corpus should be suspended. It was a vain thing to put it in the Constitution, that this writ shall never be suspended. In times of war, in the clash of arms, this provision would not be regarded. It was an old and true saying, that "among arms laws are silent." He advocated his amendment at some length.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, said that North Carolina could not go to war with any power. The General Government alone could do that, and the Constitution of the United States provided that the writ could be suspended, when the necessities of the country required it. He was opposed to putting such a thing in the Constitution of North Carolina as allowing that writ to be suspended. He alluded to some cases that happened during the war, and closed by saying, that, according to Mr. Rodman's arguments, North Carolina was an independent power, and could go to war with the United States, or any other country.

Mr. Rodman replied, substantially repeating his former argument, and citing instances that might occur, in times of an invasion of the State by foreign forces, aided and abetted by traitors at home, when Congress was not in session, &c.

Mr. King responded in quite a lengthy argument in support of his position in the matter.

Mr. Welker said that it was almost the only bright spot in the record of the Confederate Congress, that it was with the utmost difficulty that they could be got to suspend this writ, even for a short time. He thought gentlemen should recollect Salisbury, when they were casting their votes upon this measure. He opposed Mr. Rodman's amendment.

Mr. Abbott wished to form a government, free, republican and just in its provisions, yet they should form one strong enough to sustain and protect itself. He supported Mr. Rodman's amendment.

Mr. Nicholson offered the following substitute for the 17th section: "Every person restrained of his liberty, shall be entitled to the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus or other remedy to inquire into the lawfulness thereof, and to remove the same, if unlawful, and such writ, or such remedy, ought not to be denied or delayed."

Mr. Jones, of Washington, thought that the people of this State, with their experience in the past, should be very jealous, indeed, of incorporating in their Constitution such a thing as allowing the suspension of this writ. He favored the sections, as reported by the Committee.

Mr. Nicholson withdrew his substitute.

The question recurred upon Mr. Rodman's amendment. Mr. King, of Lenoir, called for the yeas and nays, and, the call being sustained, the vote resulted, yeas 6, nays 71.

Mr. Congleton moved to amend the 6th section, by striking out all before the word "State," in the 4th line. His object was to have the assumption of the old debt left with the Legislature. It had been contracted by the Legislature and should be assumed by it. But, during his remarks, it leaked out that he thought it was a dangerous thing for the Republican party to handle in this Convention, and the assumption of the old debt would detract from the strength of the party; and, therefore, he thought the policy of "hands off" would at present be most politic. He further declared that should they fail, (i. e. his party,) he would leave the State, "oh! dear!" for with the men of the so called Conservative party he could not and would not affiliate. (Alas! and back-a day!)

Hayes, of Halifax, (negro,) interrupted the Speaker, asking him several questions, regarding the effects of repudiation, and said if this Convention should pass any measure fanding that way, we might as well "deliver to your sister dies."

Mr. Welker favored Mr. Congleton's amendment, and

Mr. Congleton again solemnly warned the Convention against the adoption of a section pledging the faith of the State against repudiation.

Mr. Heaton spoke in defence of the section as it stood. He took the same ground as he did some days ago in opposition to anything looking to the repudiation of the State debt, contracted before and since the war.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, said he would strike out the whole section, if he had the power. He concurred with the gentlemen from Guilford, (Messrs. Foureee and Welker.) He did not care if he was called a Repudiator; he thought it unjust that the people should be called on to assume a debt of $15,000,000, and called for the yeas and nays.

Galloway, (negro,) said that the gentleman from Chatham, (McDonald,) was continually insinuating that the debt of N. C. was contracted for the purchase of slaves, but it was not so. That debt was equal, now, every dollar of it. He hoped the gentleman would be allowed to have the yeas and nays, and he would see to what party the gentleman belonged, and how he stood. As for him, (Galloway, negro,) he would vote as every honest North Carolinian would vote.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, thought this matter should be left to the Legislature.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) opposed the amendment, and favored the section as it stood.

The question recurred upon Mr. Congleton's amendment. The yeas and nays were called and resulted: yeas 10, nays 56.

On motion of Mr. Aydlett, the House adjourned until to-morrow, 10 o'clock.

MORNING SESSION.

TUESDAY, Feb. 18, 1868.

The Convention was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Franklin, of the Convention.

Mr. Read presented a petition from Edward Shroyer, of Warren, for a divorce.—Referred.

Mr. King, of Lenoir, from the Committee on Contingent Expenses, a report in favor of E. C. Bartlett, allowing him per diem for one day's attendance upon this Convention and mileage for 200 miles. Adopted.

RESOLUTIONS, ORDINANCES, &C.

Mr. Morton, an ordinance in favor of repealing an act prohibiting the sale of spirituous liquors at Company Shops. Lies over.

According to a motion made and carried, the Bill of Rights was read for the third time, when

Mr. Watts, in section 6th, 5th line, moved to insert, after the word "pay," the words "or authorized the collections of."—Carried.

Mr. Durham moved to strike out, in section 20, all after the word "restrain."

Mr. Abbott wished to know his reason for so amending.

Mr. Durham replied that these were days of bitter party strife, and if we leave the liberty of the press, as a matter for a Legislature to decide how far and in what way it shall be exercised, we leave the question entirely in the hands of the party that happens to be in the ascendancy. According to the section, as it stood, partisans could prescribe just how far a paper opposed to them in politics should reflect upon even their political acts and opinions. He protested against anything of this kind being incorporated in the Constitution.—There was no precedent for such a proceedure.

Messrs. Abbott and Rodman opposed the amendment, on various grounds.

Mr. Durham said that it is a common law right to protect one's character against libel; and what was the necessity to make a statutory right in this particular, when such a measure left the great bulwark of liberty—the freedom of the press—liable to be tampered with by partizans that held the reins of political power in their hands? This was another step in the march of Radical innovation and military despotism, which was fast sweeping from existence every time-honored landmark and custom that the true people of this State love and venerate. He was opposed to leaving a Legislature, that would be swayed and controlled by party doctrines and prejudices, at liberty to prescribe what limit the press of the State should enjoy. If such a thing is incorporated in the Constitution, the time will come when a free and full discussion, reflecting upon the acts of a party in power, will be denied to their opponents.

Mr. D. called for the yeas and nays. The call was sustained and the vote stood: yeas 24, nays 80.

In section 24, Mr. Durham moved to add the words, "and without representation in Congress."

Mr. Heaton said, at the time this Constitution was adopted, representation would be allowed us.

Mr. Durham said the people had paid taxes, without having such representation, and he wished the world to know that, though defenceless and unable to protect ourselves from this gross injustice, yet we protest against this outrage upon our liberties.

Mr. D. asked the yeas and nays, but they were refused.

The amendment was put to a vote and lost.

The section, as it stood, was adopted.

Mr. Abbott moved, as a substitute for the 20th section, the following: "That the privileges of the writ of Habeas Corpus shall not be suspended." Carried.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, moved to amend section 24, by striking out the first paragraph, and inserting: "As a well regulated Militia is necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed upon."

Mr. G. said he did not care whether it was adopted or not, but he wished to express his sentiments, for he believed the right to keep, as well as to bear, arms, sacred, and should not be violated.

After some debate, a vote was taken and the amendment adopted.

Mr. Heaton moved that the bill be put on its final passage, and called for the yeas and nays.

The roll was called and resulted: yeas 87, nays 20.

The following delegates voted in the negative, viz: Messrs. Baker, Bradley, Congleton, Dowd, Durham, Etheridge, Graham, of Orange, Hare, Hodnett, Lennon, Long, Marler, McCubbins, Merritt, Murphy, Sanderlin, Taylor, Turner, Welker and Williams, of Sampson.

SPECIAL ORDER—SUFFRAGE.

The majority report, and the several minority reports accompanying it, were read.

Mr. Pool, the Chairman, said that the Committee had tried to conform to the requirements of Congress, and not to go one jot beyond the provisions of its acts. He commenced his remarks by reviewing the several minority reports—particularly the one by Messrs. Durham and Graham, of Orange. He offered the usual radical issence and admiration at the altar of the "lately enfranchised," but did not favor a sweeping disfranchisement of all Southern men; most especially those who were Union men during the war. In regard to universal suffrage and eligibility to hold office, he thought that every male citizen born in the Union, or naturalized, had an inherent right to vote and hold office.

His declaration that he would support female suffrage, whenever a reasonable number of them should demand it, elicited applause.

He declared that, prior to the Reconstruction Acts, it was impossible for a colored man to get justice in a Court House.

All such things as a property qualification to hold any office in the State had completely played out. He made what was designed to be some very touching allusions to the clemency of the general Government, in sparing the lives of the participants in the late rebellion, and also to the action of several Northern States, in regard to negro suffrage. Ohio, New York, California, and some others, had caused the Republicans in this section to blush (black?) with shame, but he had strong hopes that the action of redeemed old North Carolina, in this matter, would have such a good effect upon them, that another election would tell a different tale. He agreed with the Conservatives that this was a State, but, unlike them, he did not think she had any rights at present, in the Union. He continued his remarks for some time, contesting the minority reports and advocating that of the majority.

Mr. French, of Chowan followed, as he was the author of one of the minority reports. He was for visiting wrath and destruction upon the heads of everybody, outside of the Republican party.

He was particularly hard upon the instigators of the rebellion, and those that do not shout for the reconstruction acts, and who will not receive the most rabid and radical doctrine as gospel. He said he represented a black constituency, but a comely constituency—comely for their love of this government—comely for the humility with which they bear their new honors—and comely because of their forgiveness of past wrongs. He continued in this strain to quite a length, damning rebels and eulogizing the colored race, and the "truly loyal," generally.

Upon his taking his seat, the House, on motion of Mr. Rodman, adjourned until this evening, 7½ o'clock.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, Feb. 15, 1868.
THE BOARD OF INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS, in consequence of a certificate to them under an act of the General Assembly entitled "An Act to authorize the Governor and Directors of the Western North Carolina Railroad Company to put said Road under contract," ratified 25th February 1867, having notified me to subscribe for one million, three hundred and forty-two thousand and four hundred and sixty-six and 66/100 dollars of the capital stock of said Company, in order to pay said subscription, sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned, on or before the 2nd. day of March 1868, for the purchase of one million three hundred and forty-two thousand dollars, bonds of the State of North Carolina, with coupons for interest at 6 per cent, payable semi-annually on the first days of July and January in each year, at the National Bank of the Republic in the City of New York, and the principal payable at the end of thirty years from the 1st. January 1868, said bonds to be of the denomination of $1,000 each.
As collateral security for the payment of each bond, ten shares of stock in the North Carolina Railroad Company are mortgaged, in accordance with "An Act to enhance the value of the Bonds to be issued for the completion of the Western North Carolina Railroad and for other purposes," ratified 12th December 1866.
The aforesaid Bonds are exempt from taxation. No bid for less than par will be entertained.

Kittrell's Springs Female College.
GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.
THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.
The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.
During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have proceeded their studies with entire success.
We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and by telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.
Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and cultivative education.
The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.
Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano, Organ, Harp and Guitar are of the finest quality.
Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.
TERMS MODERATE and ACCOMMODATING.
The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than ever at home. Taking into consideration the items of board and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the south. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can, as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. Our DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The gentlemen composing the State Executive Committee are respectfully requested to meet in this City, on Friday, the 28th. inst., at 11 o'clock, A. M. A full attendance is much desired. By order of the CHAIRMAN.

Raleigh, Feb. 17th., 1868.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN WAKE.

The meeting of the Conservatives of the County, for the purpose of organization and of ratifying the action of the late Conservative State Convention, at the Court House, in this City, on yesterday, was well attended and characterized by the finest feeling.

On motion of Col. J. P. H. Russ, H. O Parker, Esq., was called to the Chair, and on further motion of J. J. Litchford, Esq., Maj. B. C. Manly was requested to act as Secretary.

By request of the Chair, Seaton Gales, Esq., in a few remarks, explained the objects of the meeting, and concluded by offering the following resolutions, for its consideration, viz:

Resolved, That we hereby heartily approve of and endorse the Declaration of Principles set forth by the late Conservative Convention, and that we will devote our best energies to their maintenance.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting, in compliance with the Plan of Organization recommended by that Convention, be requested to appoint a County Committee, to consist of two persons from each Ward in the City of Raleigh, and three persons from each Captain's District in the County, to take charge of all matters of registration and local organization.

Resolved, That this Committee be earnestly requested to proceed promptly with the enrolment of all registered voters, who are willing to vote and act with our organization, and likewise of all who are opposed to it; and that the County Canvassers be respectfully and urgently solicited to commence, at the earliest possible moment, a thorough and vigorous canvass, in the advocacy of the principles embodied in the resolutions of the late Convention.

Resolved, That a County Executive Committee of ten persons be appointed by the Chairman of this meeting, whose duty it shall be to suggest a time for holding a District Convention, for the nomination of a candidate for Congress, and a County Convention, for the nomination of candidates for the Legislature, if it shall be deemed advisable and expedient so to do.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

[At the suggestion of gentlemen, the Chairman was allowed further time, within which to designate the Committees authorized by the resolutions. They will probably be announced in the Sentinel of to-morrow.]

Col. Russ addressed the meeting in a forcible and earnest speech, which literally "made the fur fly" from the negro worshippers.

Repeated calls also brought up the Hon. D. G. Fowle, who made one of the most effective and eloquent efforts we have ever had the pleasure of hearing from that gentleman. He announced his positions with boldness, and supported them with great ability and earnestness. His appeals to the true bona fide white men of the county to rally for the vindication of the supremacy of their race, the defeat of mongrel Radicalism, and the preservation of Constitutional Union, were most thrilling, and awakened the enthusiastic plaudits of the meeting.

The white men of Wake county will be thoroughly organized, and will give the right account of themselves at the right time.

ANOTHER DAILY.—The Proprietors of the Press, of this City, have disposed of their material and fixtures to the Proprietors of the Register. The former paper will be discontinued, and the Publishers of the Register, having thus enlarged their facilities, propose to publish a daily edition of that journal,—promising to furnish "a paper unsurpassed in interest by any in the State." The Proprietors of the Press have displayed much energy in the conduct of their paper, and we wish them success in whatever they may undertake in the future.

THANKS.—Our grateful acknowledgments are due to our friend C. C. Barbee, Esq., of Barclayville, for a club of subscribers to the Weekly Sentinel.

MAYOR'S COURT.—J. T. Williamson, charged with disorderly conduct on Wilmington Street, was fined $10.

Benjamin King, charged with assaulting N. C. Hill, was fined $5.

Hawkins Bowen, Fannie Bowen and Emma Holt, arrested by the Police in the night, for disorderly conduct, were lodged in the Guard House and released according to law.

Francis Black, James Season, Wm. Russel, John Merron and Wm. Dawson, U. S. soldiers, were arrested by the Police, at a late hour of the night, and lodged in the Guard House. Turned over to the military guard, by order of Lt. C. Cornell, Co. B. 8th. U. S. Infantry.

Charles Bratt, Co. I, Cavalry, lodged in the Guard House for intoxication, on Hargett Street, on Sunday, was turned over to the military authorities.

TREASURER BATTLE AND GEN. CANBY.—We call the special attention of our readers to the very sensible views of the Wilmington Journal, in the article on our fourth page, upon the action of Mr. Battle, in obeying the peremptory order of General Canby to pay the mileage, &c., of the "Convention," upon the order of the President. The letter of Mr. Battle to the Convention was so palpably convincing, as to the correctness of his views, and met with such universal approval among the Conservatives of the State, that we deemed it unnecessary that we should specifically endorse his final action in obedience to Gen. Canby's order, believing that the general sentiment of the people would justify it in the latter, as in the former, instance. The reasons presented by the Journal will remove all doubts as to the propriety of his course. As we stated, at first, Mr. B., in this matter, acted not only upon his own judgment, but in accordance with the advice and counsel of many representative men in the State.

A CONSTITUTIONAL VIEW of the late War, between the States; its causes, character, conduct and results. Presented in a series of colloquies at Liberty Hall; by ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS. In two volumes. National Publishing Company, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Atlanta and Richmond.

We have received some advance sheets of this book. The purpose of the writer is to present a Constitutional view of the late war between the States of "the Union," known as the "United States of America." From the ability of the distinguished author and the philosophical cast of his mind, the public expects, and will doubtless have, a work of great interest and value. We are not, as yet, appriaed as to the terms upon which it is to be issued,—whether it is to be sold by subscription, or otherwise. We will communicate the information, when we obtain it.

DAVIDSON.—In the list of Canvassers published for this county, the name of Henry Walser, Jr., has been misprinted for Henry Walser, Sr. The correction has been made in the proper column.

COUNTY MEETING.

At a meeting of the citizens of Cumberland county, held at the court House in Fayetteville, on the 26th of January, 1868, the meeting was called to order by Hon. J. G. Shepherd, and, on his motion, the Hon. Thomas C. Fuller was called to the chair, and Arch'd McLean and James C. McRae, Esqs., appointed Secretaries.

On motion of James C. Dobbin, Esq., it was

Resolved, That the Chairman of this meeting appoint twenty delegates to represent the County of Cumberland in the Conservative Convention to be held in Raleigh, on Wednesday, the 5th of February.

In pursuance of the above resolution, the chair appointed the following gentlemen as delegates, viz: Dun. McCormick, Cader Parker, John C. Smith, John C. McKethan, Neil McDugald, Robt. Williams, Sr., Alex. Maxwell, Joseph Cade, R. Culbreth, Isaac C. Melvin, Jesse B. Carver, William McMillan, Esq., E. H. Evans, John D. McArthur, John C. Currie, Lauchlin Bethune, Jos. A. McArthur, John McKellar, James C. Dobbin, Esq., and Thos. S. Lutterloh, Esq.

On motion of Jas. G. Cook, the names of the Chairman and Secretaries were added to the list of delegates.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

THOS. C. FULLER, Ch'm.
ARCH'D McLEAN, } Secy's.
JAS. C. McRAE, }

[We publish the foregoing proceedings, at this late day, simply to show that our Cumberland friends wished to be represented in the late Conservative Convention.—Unfortunately, a special term of the Superior Court was in session, which prevented delegates from attending, who would otherwise have done so.]

The news from Hayti just now ought to teach our ignorant and infamous Congress the folly of placing political power in the hands of a barbarous race. The negroes there are in revolution again, and are cutting each other's throats in true African style.—We say just now; but in fact this is the normal condition both of Hayti and all other countries where the negroes have attained power.—N. Y. Herald.

The New York World shows, by figures and statistics, that seventeen members of the House of Representatives, whose votes are necessary to give the Radicals a requisite majority for passing a bill over the President's Veto, represent districts in the several States which at the last elections gave large Conservative majorities.

The Springfield (Mass.) Republican says "there is no cause for regret" if the Alabama Constitution has been defeated. It says: "The progress of the election has developed more plainly and forcibly than anything else has or could, the reasons why the Constitution ought not to succeed, and why the present course of reconstruction ought to stop."

The adoption of the negro constitution in Alabama was to be the condition of re-admitting that State to immediate representation. The State rejects the constitution, therefore, says Mr. Greeley, admit the State at once; and Sherman's proposition looks to the same end. Whereupon appears a certain inconsistency, or would, if it were not merely a new application of the Stevens method of legislating "outside the Constitution."—N. Y. World.

RETURNING HOME.—We are gratified to see that several farmers in this section of the State who moved away in 1866 and '67, are returning, satisfied that they cannot better their condition. Unfortunately, many have returned much poorer than they left. But we are glad to see them back, anyhow.—Charlotte Democrat.

Our Noon Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18, M.

The Kentucky Legislature elects Senator Guthrie's successor to day. Dr. N. Green, prominent in telegraph matters, is among the favorite candidates.

It is understood that, up to a late hour last night, the President had received no communication from Gen. Sherman, in regard to his nomination as Brevet General or the assignment to the command of the District of the Atlantic.

The Senate military committee has passed a resolution, respectfully returning Sherman's Brevet nomination, with the disapproval of the proposed grade.

Arkansas votes five days, commencing on the 15th. of March.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb 18, P. M.

HOUSE.—Butler introduced a bill amendatory to National Banks, which was referred to the Committee of Banking and Currency. It provides, among other things, that every stockholder may vote, according to the number of shares he holds, in a certain proportion specified in the bill.

Fifty thousand dollars were appropriated, to be expended by the Secretary of State, to relieve and bring home American citizens abroad, arrested and subsequently released. Passed, 114 to 29.

A bill was introduced, increasing revolutionary and war of 1812 pensions. It appropriates two millions. Washburn, of Illinois, opposed the bill, contending that a hundred and seventy-two millions would be expended under its operation. The bill passed.

The House went into the Committee of the Whole on appropriations and adjourned.

SENATE.—A joint resolution was introduced, to print a Medical and Surgical History of the Rebellion.

The House resolution, reducing the expenses of the War Department, passed.

A bill for the gradual reduction of the army and the abolishment of useless grades therein, passed.

Senator Thomas' case was resumed and discussed to adjournment.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON Feb 18, P. M.

The Reconstruction Committee agreed to report a resolution, allowing Butler, of Tennessee, to take his seat, without taking the iron clad oath.

Brooks moved to extend the same privilege to Jno. Young Brown, of Kentucky, which was rejected—only Brooks and Beck voting in the affirmative.

The city Councils delegation will, to-morrow, personally present President Johnson the official endorsement of the city.

Gen. Steedman's resignation is dated 26th. January.

Full Cabinet to-day, except Stanton.

The Senate Financial Committee, reported adversely on the House bill, respecting deposits of public money.

The bill removing certain political disabilities is not to be reported immediately. Stevens favored further investigation.

Stevens was authorized to report his bill, dividing Texas into four or more States.

Bingham's election resolution, which was offered on yesterday, was postponed. The discussion developed the fact that Stevens and other Radical members of the Committee will oppose Sherman's bill admitting Alabama.

Thos. C. McCrary succeeds Senator Guthrie.

VIRGINIA CONVENTION.

RICHMOND Feb. 18, P. M.

The Convention was engaged, to-day, chiefly on the oyster question. It was resolved not to tax citizens for the privilege of catching oysters with tongs, but to tax the amount of sales of oysters.

During the debate, one member called another "a damned scoundrel."

The Republican State Committee met to-day.

A nominatig convention will be called to meet in this city, five days after the adjournment of the Convention.

The names of Hawxhurst, of Alexandria, Rives, of Albermarle Rye, of Shenandoah, and Thomas, of Henry, are spoken of in connection with the Governorship.

THE ALABAMA ELECTION.

MONTGOMERY, Feb. 18, P. M.

Official returns from 42 counties have been received, at District Headquarters, but, under an order from Gen. Meade, the publication of them is refused.

The whole vote of the State, on the question of ratification, it is estimated, from partial returns, will be about 72,000. The white vote is less than three thousand. Half the registration is 84,000.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONVENTION.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 18, P. M.

Twenty more sections of the Constitution passed to-day.

Senator Wilson telegraphs from Washington that Congress will not loan one million of dollars to the State, to purchase land for the poor.

FLORIDA CONVENTION.

TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 18, P. M.

The Convention to-day reorganized on the basis proposed by Gen. Meade. Much excitement among the delegates and lobbyists.

Gen. Meade had a conference with the leaders of the majority and minority, and submitted a proposition of conciliation and harmony, which was accepted, as follows: The Presidents of both wings to resign; the four delegates declared ineligible to vacate; a majority to decide all questions; questions of eligibility to be determined in full Convention; Col. Sprague, commanding the State, to call Convention to order, and new organization to be made.

Col. Sprague urged the equal rights of all men and classes as the basis of the Constitution. Forty-five members were present out of 46.

Horatio Jenkins, late President of the majority, was re-elected by a vote of 32 to 8.

A PLAN OF ORGANIZATION.

STATE ORGANIZATION.

A State Committee, to consist of a Chairman and thirty members, six of whom shall reside in Raleigh, and three in each judicial district—to be appointed by the State Convention.

The Committee shall have power to maintain its organization, by filling vacancies, &c., and shall take charge of all matters relating to organization, registration, &c., and a proper canvass of the State.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The members of the State Committee in each judicial district shall constitute a district Committee for their respective districts and shall appoint a Chairman, and shall take charge of all matters relating to county organization, &c., in their respective districts; and shall report all matters relating thereto, to the Chairman of the State Committee.

COUNTY ORGANIZATION.

It is recommended that each County, by popular meetings or through the medium of existing organizations, appoint a County Committee, to consist of at least two persons from each Captain's District within its limits.

The County Committee shall take charge of all matters of registration, local organization, &c., within the County, and is requested to make monthly reports to the Chairman of the District Committee, and, when necessary, to inform him of such local matters as may require the attention of the District Committee.

It is further recommended that each County Committee cause to be enrolled the names of all the registered voters of their county, who are willing to act and vote with this organization—no man to be thus enrolled without his express consent; and, also, that they cause to be enrolled on a separate list the names of all those who are entitled to register, but who have not done so, and that they use every exertion to secure their registration and active co-operation.

Resolved, That the President of the Convention appoint five or more persons, in each County, to make a thorough canvass of the same, and disseminate proper political information.

DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES.

The Conservative people of North Carolina having, by their delegates, assembled in Convention at Raleigh, on the 5th. of February, 1868, to consider the present anomalous condition of the State, and of the country, and to consult together upon the grievances which now afflict and threaten them, and the course of action proper to be adopted in the trying circumstances which surround them, do resolve and declare

1. Our unalterable devotion to the principles of Constitutional liberty and our fealty to the government of the United States, as set forth in the Federal Constitution. That we sincerely and in good faith accept the legitimate and legal results of the late war, and do hereby reiterate our oft repeated declaration, that we most heartily desire peace and concord with our sister States and with the entire people of the United States.

2. Resolved, That regarding the Constitution of the United States as the source of all power in the administration of the government, and that the powers of the Executive, Legislative and Judicial departments are equal and co ordinate, as defined by that instrument, we do respectfully and solemnly protest against the enforcement upon our people of the Reconstruction Acts and policy of Congress, as unconstitutional, unwise and destructive to society, and violative of that great principle of American politics, that each State shall have the exclusive control of its own internal affairs.

3. Resolved That it is the opinion of this Convention, that the great and all absorbing issue, now soon to be presented to the people of the State, is negro suffrage and negro equality, if not supremacy, and whether hereafter in North Carolina and the South, the white man is to be placed politically, and, as a consequence, socially, upon a footing of equality with the negro, and, in many localities, subject to his government as a superior. That we are utterly opposed to such change in our government and in our social relations, and that we do hereby earnestly recommend to the people of the State to manfully meet the issue now attempted to be forced upon them, and to use every proper means within their power to avert the impending mischief.

4. Resolved, That while we are unalterably opposed to political and social equality with the black race, we yet have no unjust prejudicies against that race; that we are determined, by just laws, to protect them fully in all their civil rights, and to confer upon them all privileges which can be done consistently with the safety and welfare of both races.

5. Resolved, That the distressed and impoverished condition of our people earnestly demands the speediest and wisest measures of relief that the Legislature can devise.

6. Resolved, That this Convention recognizes, with feelings of gratitude, the heroic and patriotic efforts of the President of the United States, to restore the Union and harmony and good will among the American people.

7. Resolved, That this Convention regards the Supreme Court of the United States as the legitimate expounder, in the last resort, of the Constitution—and believe that its rights and powers, in that respect, should be preserved intact, as established by law in the earlier and better days of the Republic, and that any serious impairment thereof, by legislation or otherwise, will be destructive to the best interests of the country, and dangerous to the liberties of the people.

8. Resolved, That despairing of any restoration of the Southern States under the conduct of that organization which now controls the proceedings of Congress, waiving all former party feeling and prejudice, this Convention does most unhesitatingly recommend and invite the hearty co-operation of all the good people of North Carolina with the Democrats and Conservative men of the North and West, who are now nobly struggling for the maintenance of the Constitution of the United States and the restoration of the Southern States to their rights in the Union on the solid foundation of harmony and peace.

9. Resolved, That this Convention elect four delegates and four alternates, for the State at large, to represent the Conservative people of North Carolina in the next Democratic National Convention, and that it recommend to the Conservative people of the several Congressional Districts, to appoint delegates at an early day to represent them in said Convention.

10. Resolved, That when an election shall be ordered for the ratification of a new State Constitution, the Executive Committee for the State, which has been appointed by this Convention, be instructed, if the time shall be sufficient, to call a Convention of the Conservative people of the State, to put in nomination candidates for the various State offices whose election shall then be ordered; and if there shall not be sufficient time to call said Convention, to put in nomination sound Conservative men for said offices.

From the Wilmington Journal.

TREASURER BATTLE—GEN. CANBY AND THE CONVENTION.

As announced by telegraph on yesterday, Treasurer Battle, submitting to a direct order from Gen. Canby, pays the members and officers of the Convention their per diem.

It is well known that we took ground against this payment upon the mere order of the Convention, and urged our reasons at some length. Mr. Battle refused to pay upon this authority, but we learn he will obey the order of Gen. Canby, and we believe under the circumstances he is acting with judgment and wisdom. We would be the last to advise any illegal submission to the orders of the government set over us by fraud and force, but we must regard Mr. Battle's action in the matter as in accordance with a plain and practical discharge of his official duties and for the best interests of the people of the State. If the funds of the State could have been legally removed and the burden of the expenses of the political pirates now assembled in Raleigh could have been averted from our people, unquestionably it would have been the duty of the Public Treasurer to have done so.

In the first place, to have removed the money in the State Treasury would have been in violation of law which the Treasurer had sworn to obey.

To have removed the funds would not have secured the relief desired. By our laws (see Revised Code, Chapter 112, Section 24,) the new Treasurer, for General Canby would have removed Mr. Battle immediately upon his refusal to obey the above order, could, in five days after his entering into office, have obtained judgment against Mr. Battle and his sureties for the amount removed, (say $350,000,) which the Comptroller would necessarily have been compelled to report as not accounted for, and the Treasurer and his bondsmen would have been sold out and ruined.

The Supreme Court of the United States has decided that if a public officer removes funds from a lawful place of deposit to an unauthorized place, it is a conversion and breach of his bond. The laws of North Carolina direct the Treasurer of the State to deposit his moneys in designated places in Raleigh.

The order to pay comes from a de facto government with power to enforce its orders.

It is better for the people of the State that the Treasurer should save the larger portion of the public funds, than by refusing to obey the order to have placed the whole in the hands of irresponsible military officers.

A ministerial officer is not blameable for obeying laws until pronounced unconstitutional by the proper judicial tribunal. President Johnson, having vetoed all the Reconstruction Acts, and demonstrated by the most unanswerable logic that they are unconstitutional, yet observes them with as much respect as any on the statute book, and all other officers, civil and military, of the United States and State, are acting upon this principle.

Acting under such considerations, and his refusal unattended by any practical benefit to the people, we think Mr. Treasurer Battle has acted wisely in obeying the order of Gen. Canby, and though our people will dislike to meet the taxes necessary to pay the expenses of this miserable assembly, for in no sense does it represent the tax-payers of the State in feeling or in interest, yet it will be better to do so, than have the whole State Government upset, and the Executive Department, with the entire control of the levying and collection of taxes and the management of State works of internal improvements, in the hands of strangers irresponsible to us and uninfluenced by any sympathy with our wants and necessities, and then be compelled, at much greater expense, to foot the bill of the "disreputable and disgraceful" law-makers now in Raleigh.

HONEST OR NOT?—The intensely Radical paper, published on Craven Street of this city, hoists the name of W. W. Holden for Governor of North Carolina. Is he honestly in favor of an arch-rebel and former secessionist for the responsible position for which he names the great Head Centre?—This is a question for those curious in examining the workings of the human brain to determine. We are not deep enough to fathom the profundity and answer the question. We might have done so had he named a candidate for Lieutenant Governor at the same time. We might then have seen quid pro quo, (to use a favorite language of the "Ostensible,") paid for this hoisting of colors prior to the nominating Convention. Make a clean breast of it, neighbor, and let an anxious public know, who is to be Lieutenant Governor? Is it to be the distinguished delegate from Lenoir, or one of the representatives from Craven, or is it to be a simon pure son of Africa? By the way, the delegate from Lenoir was in our city Friday, before the announcement was made. Did he come to give our neighbor the "cue?" We pause for a reply.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

A Washington correspondent says:

"Mr. Sumner's term as Senator expires on the 4th of March, 1869, and members of his party are already intriguing to secure the succession. There are several aspirants for the place in stead of Mr. Sumner, and some of them declare that they will take back seats no longer, but intend 'to go for him.' Generals Banks and Butler are both desirous of the position, but Governor Bullock is said to have the inside track, and Massachusetts people here say that the great orator and scholar will accompany Mr. Wade in his retirement to private life in a twelvemonth hence."

It would indeed be a triumph of the first magnitude to have two such pestiferous men as Wade and Sumner leave the Senate on the same day. But there would be an appropriateness in it. United as they have been in their political life, in death they should not be divided."

VERY TRUE.—A little truth finds utterance occasionally in Congress, like a white pebble rolled by a stream in whose bosom a vast amount of mud and filth is conveyed.—A day or two since, in the Senate, Mr. Davis, of Kentucky, said: "Loyalty, in his opinion, consisted in a willing obedience to the Constitution, and he believed the distressed and suffering people of the South to be the most loyal portion of the people of the United States. Without intending to wound the feelings of any man, he said the most disloyal people in the United States were the Radicals and their leaders."

PROSPECTUS OF THE WESTERN VINDICATOR.

ON or before the 1st. of March, prox. the undersigned will commence the publication of a weekly newspaper bearing the above title, in the town of Rutherfordton, N. C.

The WESTERN VINDICATOR, as its name signifies, will be devoted by the support of Western interests and the dissemination of useful intelligence, selected with especial reference to the wants of the section it will labor to represent.

Politically, it will, for the present, adhere to no party organization, but will give a cheerful support to all measures looking to the speedy restoration of the Union—the preservation of the Constitution intact—the supremacy of the white race and the perpetuity of Republican liberty in America.

The "Vindicator" will have a larger circulation in Rutherford, Polk and Cleaveland counties than any other newspaper. Advertising rates low.

Terms $2 per annum.

NEW ARRANGEMENT

FOR THE

SENTINEL,

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;

Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;

The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;

The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;

The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;

The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;

Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.—The principal markets will be regularly published.

Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.

Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Terms:

Daily Sentinel, for one year	$8 00
" " six months	4 00
" " three months	2 00
Semi-Weekly Sentinel, for one year	4 00
" " six months	2 00
" " three months	1 00
Weekly " for one year	2 50
" " six months	1 00

All subscriptions strictly cash in advance

As an advertising medium, the SENTINEL is equal to any in the State. Terms moderate.

☞ We ask every Conservative in the State to become our Agent to extend the circulation of the SENTINEL. The events of 1868 will be exciting and important. The WEEKLY SENTINEL should be in the hands of the great body of the people—The terms are now so low that every one will be able to pay for it.

FAMILY FLOUR!

A SUPERIOR QUALITY JUST IN AND FOR sale by

Jan 21-138-1w LYNN ADAMS.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 154.

I Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBTS.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 29th day of April, 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th day of December 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property, by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 29th, of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 29th, day of April, 1865, for the 18th. day of May, 186.

Paragraph V of the same order is modified as follows:

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

Paragraph VII of the same order is modified as follows:

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of South Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licences for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authorities, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special terms of their courts, for the purpose of disposing of such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 26th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due: provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
